

This is going to backfire against you.

Decency should come before partisan politics and, increasingly, those who're looking more toward their pocketbooks than to fairness are being revealed for what they are.

You're stepping on everyone's freedom by using your free pass to the airwaves as a tool for self-serving partisan propaganda.

Citizens are wise to you.